Josh,

I believe that your below email misstates our conversation. Reservoir has now produced to you the Asset Purchase Agreement, as well as the exhibits and schedules to the Asset Purchase Agreement. We are continuing to search for and review potentially responsive documents, and we will produce any additional non-privileged responsive documents on a rolling basis.

Below please find our proposed electronic service agreement. We did not agree to send you virtual deposition protocols by Monday; however, we will try to get a draft out to you this week.

Proposed Agreement Regarding Electronic Service:

We propose the parties agree to accept electronic service of all pleadings, discovery and other litigation-related materials in lieu of service by mail, express mail, overnight delivery, or fax transmission. All such emails should be addressed to all counsel of record at each firm, and all such emails to Wills Law Firm, PLLC should be addressed to Rhonda H. Wills, rwills@rwillslawfirm.com, and Patrick Raspino, praspino@rwillslawfirm.com. This agreement will last until a party notifies the others the agreement is terminated.

If any party is unable to serve or deliver any document via email, we will work together to agree on an alternative method of service. Please reply and let us know if you consent to such an arrangement. We are comfortable memorializing this arrangement via email between the parties. If you want this arrangement memorialized in some other fashion, please advise or propose a stipulation.

Thank you,

Patrick Raspino
